Seventy-first Report,

1937.

In compliance with the request of the British Hospitals Association, the Hospital will, in future, close the year's accounts on 31st December. The present report comprises all details from April 1st to December 31st, 1937, nine months only.

Patients. The number of patients treated was 205, against 267 last year. Operations 112, against 159. Anæsthetics 112. Average number of beds in daily use 9.3. There were 80 out-patients, and 33 X-Ray cases.

The two new private wards have been made good use of throughout the year, and have been much appreciated by patients. The usual charge is £5 5s. 0d. per week.

Staff. Nurse B. Mills left on November 30th to take up a position in a London Hospital. Miss V. Stott has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

Owing to a suspected case of infectious disease, the Medical Officer of Health advised the closing of the Hospital from November 7th to December 17th. Matron was on sick leave from November 14th to December 30th, and Nurse Mills from November 20th to December 3rd, and during this time Sister Ball and Nurse Alison carried on, with the assistance of a night nurse from Exeter, Miss Male, and Mrs. Northway, a fully qualified nurse, from Bude.

Committee. There has been no change on the Committee.

Financial. After placing £20 to Reserve Account a credit balance of £10 1s. 3d. is carried forward.

Subscriptions, Donations, and Bequest. These amounted to £67 5s. 6d. for the period under review.

Hospital Sunday Collections.

The collections amounted to £38 12s. 9d.

Patients' Payments. Patients' payments were £325 0s. 3d. Contributory Schemes and Devon and Cornwall County Councils Payments £208 7s. 11d.—a total of £533 8s. 2d.

Entertainments. The sum realised under this heading was £103 8s. 3d.

Comrades of War Bed. There is no change from last year's report.

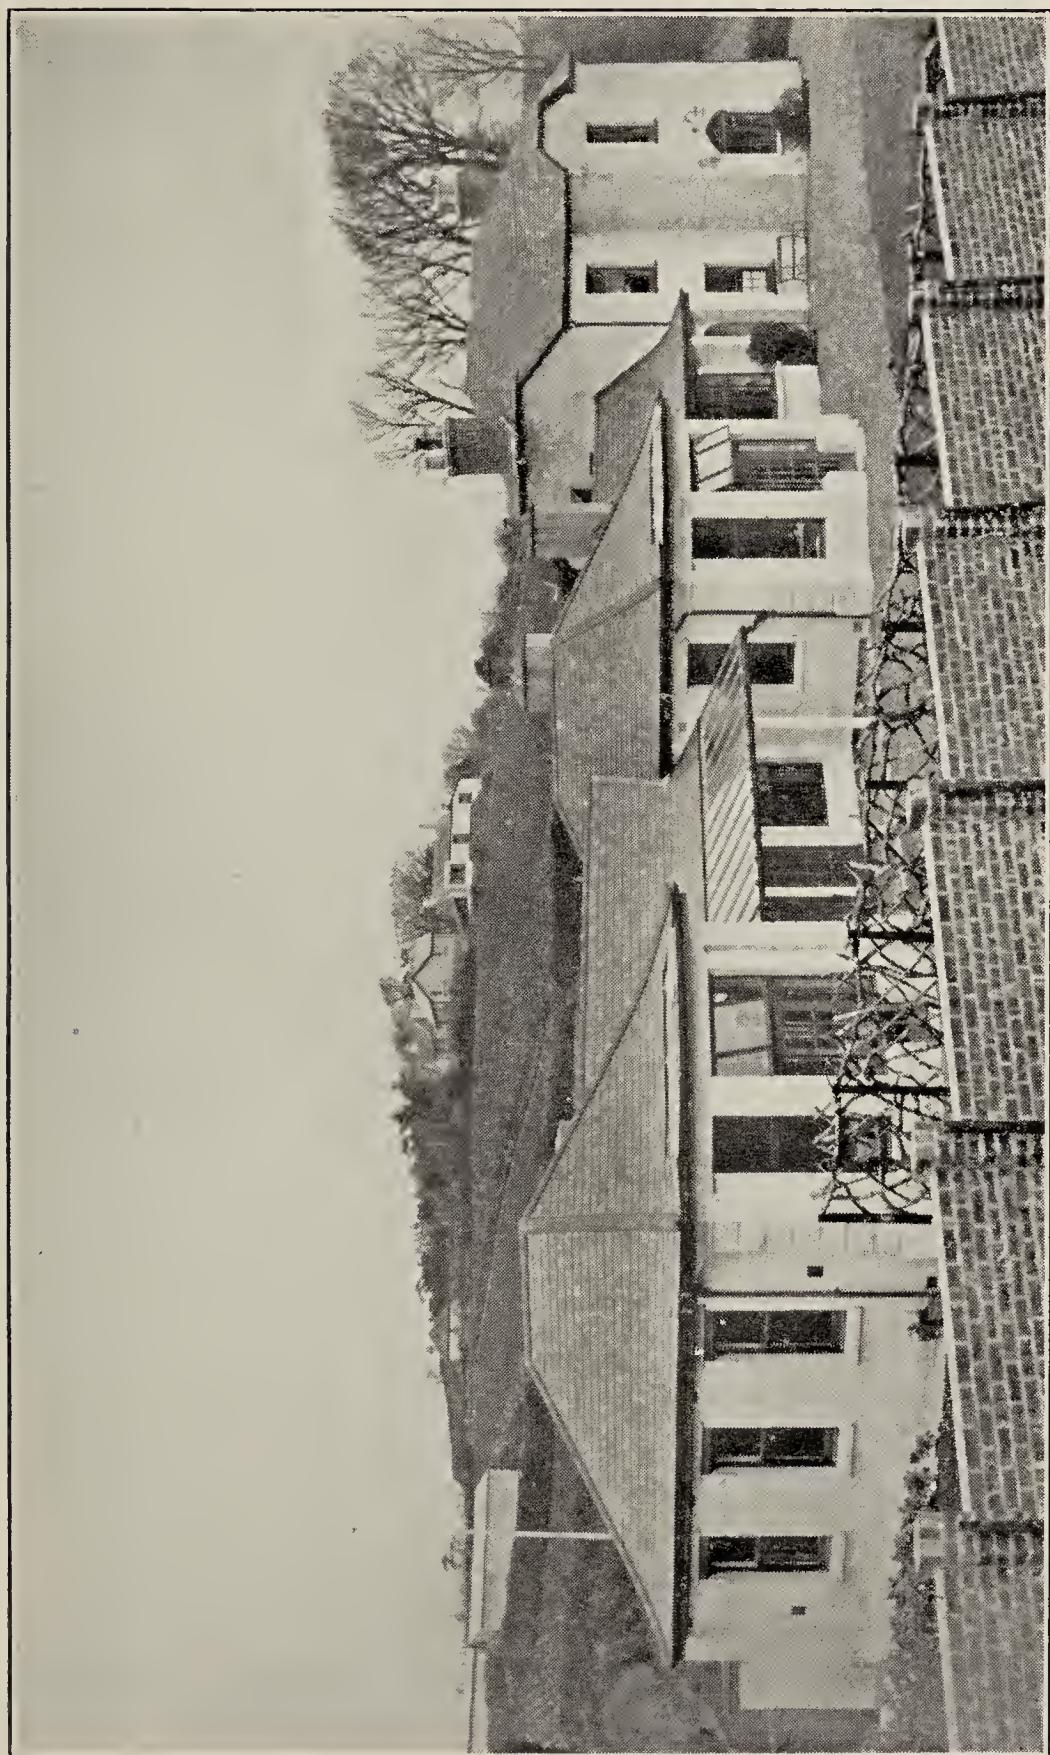

Replacement of Investments. No further sums have been invested during the period under review

H.S.A. The Contributors to the H.S.A. in this area now number 1,364, and great praise is due to the General Secretary and Group Secretaries for their good work. Flag Day was held on August 2nd, and brought in the sum of £89 16s. 1d., and the $\frac{1}{4}$ mile of pennies, organized by Mr. W. Askham, brought in £10 3s. 11d., a total of £100 for the day.

Thanks. Thanks are due to the Efford Down Hotel Visitors' Sports Club who generously contributed £4 12 6 to our funds, and also to Miss Harbottle of Stratton, for her kindness in receiving Pound Day Gifts at her house whilst the hospital was temporarily closed.

We thank the medical and nursing staff, the Ladies' Committee, and the Hon. Treasurer and Secretary who have so generously given their time and help for the benefit of the Hospital.

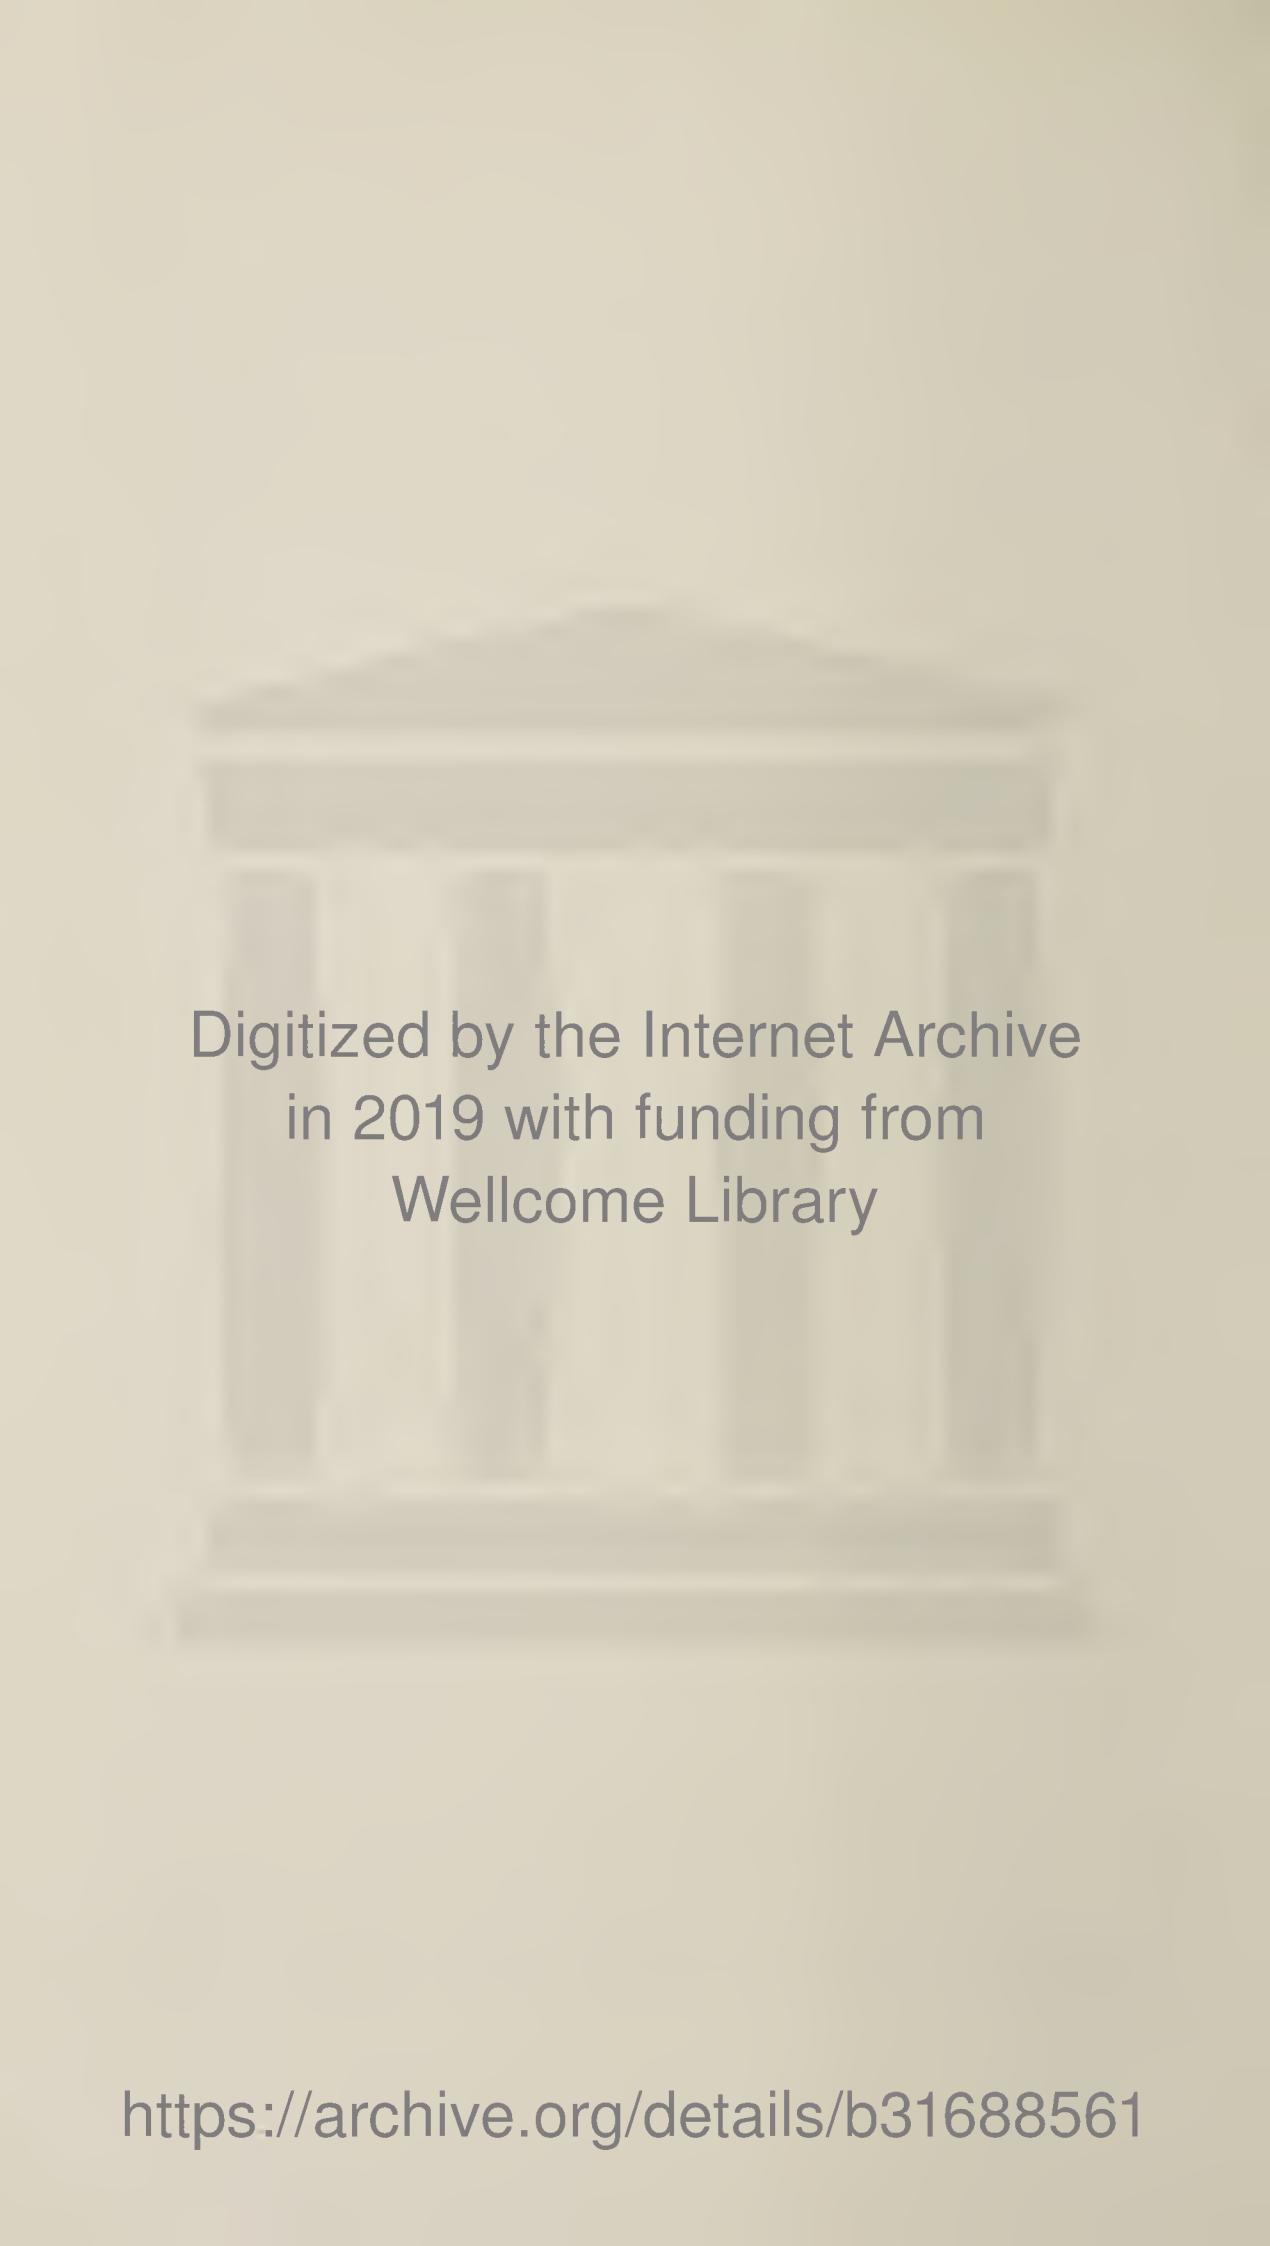

Our best thanks are also due to our Parish Collectors, and the Secretary and Group Secretaries of the Hospital Saving Association, and all those who have helped us with Entertainments, and in many other ways.

CONTRIBUTORY SCHEME.

In co-operation with the H.S.A.

During the year the Contributory Scheme has again made steady progress and through the support it has received, a valuable source of income has resulted for the Hospital.

The success of our Scheme is largely due to the unremitting good work of Honorary Group Secretaries, and we are also grateful to the employers for their valuable co-operation by allowing contributions to be collected.

The Organising Committee of the H.S.A. has completed its third year's work, and the importance of this cannot be overestimated. In addition to promoting the welfare of the respective Groups in our district, several successful functions have been held on behalf of the Hospital.

There are many who have not yet joined and it is hoped that 100% membership will be reached at an early date. The Contributory Scheme is open to all whose income falls within the limit laid down.

Full particulars may be obtained by writing to the Honorary Organising Secretary, or by applying to any of the Honorary Group Secretaries, whose names and addresses are given on next page.

Hon. Secretary Organising Committee :
